Mobile Remote Deposit User Agreement

The Mobile Remote Deposit capture services (“Services”) are designed to allow you to make deposits to your checking account(s) from home or other remote locations by scanning checks and delivering the images and associated deposit information to the Credit Union or its designated processor.

Acceptance of Terms

Your use of the Services constitutes your acceptance of this Agreement. This Agreement is subject to change from time to time. We will notify you of any material change via e-mail, text message, or on our website(s) by providing a link to the revised Agreement or by an online secure message. Your continued use of the Services will indicate your consent to be bound by the revised Agreement. Education First FCU reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove portions from the Services. Your continued use of the Services will indicate your acceptance of any such changes to the Services.

Limitations of Services

When using the Services, you may experience technical or other difficulties. We will attempt to post alerts on our website or send you a text message to notify you of these interruptions in Service. We cannot assume responsibility for any technical or other difficulties or any resulting damages that you may incur. Some of the Services have qualification requirements, and we reserve the right to change the qualifications at any time without prior notice. We reserve the right to change, suspend or discontinue the Services, in whole or in part, immediately and at any time without prior notice to you.

Hardware and Software

In order to use the Services, you must obtain and maintain, at your expense, compatible hardware and software as specified by the Credit Union from time to time. Education First FCU is not responsible for any third party software you may need to use the Services. Any such software is accepted by you as is and is subject to the terms and conditions of the software agreement you enter into directly with the third party software provider at the time of download and installation.

Endorsements and Procedures

You agree to restrictively endorse any item transmitted through the Services as “For Mobile Deposit Only, (Credit Union name) account #_____” or as otherwise instructed by the Credit Union. You agree to follow any and all other procedures and instructions for use of the Services as the Credit Union may establish from time to time. Endorsements must be made on the back of the check(s) within 1 ½ inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. Any loss we incur from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you will be your responsibility. For a check payable to you and any joint owner(s) of your Credit Union account, the check must be endorsed by all such payees and you may use Mobile Deposit to deposit such check(s) into a Credit Union account jointly owned by all such payees. If the check is payable to you or your joint owner, either of you can endorse it. If the check is made payable to you and any non-joint owner, you may not deposit the check into your Credit Union account using the Services.

Check requirement (including image quality)

The image of an item transmitted to the Credit Union using the Services must be legible and contain images of the front and back of the check. The image quality of the items must comply with the requirements established from time to time by the American National Standards Institute (ANSI), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board, or any other regulatory agency, clearing house or association. These requirements include, but are not limited to, ensuring the following information can clearly be read and understood by sight review of the Check image: the amount of the Check (both written and numeric); the payee; the signature of the drawer (maker); the date; the Check number; the information identifying the drawer and the paying financial institution that is preprinted on the Check including the MICR line; and all other information placed on the Check prior to the time of an image of the Check is captured (such as any required identification written on the front of the Check and any endorsements applied to the back of the Check). All Checks should be written in blue or black ink and have a watermark on the back.

Receipt of Items

We reserve the right to reject any item transmitted through the Services, at our discretion. We are not responsible for items we do not receive or for images that are dropped during transmission. An image of an item shall be deemed received when you receive a confirmation from the Credit Union that we have received the image. Receipt of such confirmation does not mean that the transmission was error free, complete or will be considered a deposit and credited to your account. We further reserve the right to charge back to your account at any time, any item that we subsequently determine was not an eligible item. You agree that the Credit Union is not liable for any loss, costs, or fees you may incur as a result of our chargeback of an ineligible item.

Availability of Funds

You agree that items transmitted using the Services are not subject to the funds availability requirements of the Federal Reserve Board Regulation CC. In general, if an image of an item you transmit through the Services is received and accepted before 2:00 p.m. Central Time on a business day that we are open, we consider that day to be the day of your deposit. Otherwise, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open. Funds deposited using the Services will generally be made available in three business days from the day of deposit. Education First FCU may make such funds available sooner based on such factors as credit worthiness, the length and extent of your relationship with us, transaction and experience information, and other factors at the Credit Union's discretion which deems relevant.

Unpaid checks

You are solely responsible for verifying that Checks that you deposit by using the Services have been received and accepted for deposit by the Credit Union. Education First FCU will provide you with notices of any deposits that it is unable to process because Checks were returned unpaid by the payor financial institution. You agree to accept such notices at your e-mail address on file with us, but we may choose any reasonable method for providing such notices to you. In the event that the Credit Union credits your account for a Check that is subsequently dishonored and returned, you authorize the Credit Union to debit the amount of such Check plus any associated fees from the account. To the extent that funds in your account are insufficient to cover such amount, we shall debit the deficiency amount from any of your other account(s) with the Credit Union in our sole discretion. Our right to charge your account(s) will apply without regard to whether the Check was timely or whether there is any claim or defense that the Check was improperly returned.

You understand and agree that since the original Check is your property, it will not be returned and the Credit Union may charge back an image of the Check, an ACH debit, or other electronic or paper debit, as applicable, to your account. You may not use the Services to deposit a substitute check and you may not deposit the original Check through the Services or in any other manner if you receive a dishonored Check. You agree to comply with any additional instructions we may provide to you in connection with returned Checks.

Disposal of Transmitted Items

Upon your receipt of a confirmation from the Credit Union that we have received an image that you have transmitted. You agree to securely store the original Check for at least 60 calendar days from the date of the image transmission. During the time that the retained Check is available, you agree to promptly provide it to the Credit Union upon request. Should you fail to produce the original check, you authorize us to deduct that amount from your account. Promptly after the 60 day retention period expires, you agree to destroy the original Check by first marking it "VOID" and then destroying it by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction.

Deposit Limits

We may establish limits on the dollar amount and/or number of items or deposits from time to time. If you attempt to initiate a deposit in excess of these limits, we may reject your deposit. If we permit you to make a deposit in excess of these limits, such deposit will still be subject to the terms of this Agreement, and we will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times. The current daily dollar limit is $5,000.00 per business day with a maximum dollar limit per item of $3,000.00. We reserve the right to change these limits at any time without prior notice to you.

Errors

You agree to notify the Credit Union promptly of any suspected errors, omissions or discrepancies regarding items deposited through the Services. If you do not notify the Credit Union within 30 days, after the applicable Credit Union account statement is sent to you, such statement regarding all deposits made through the Services shall be deemed correct. Subject to applicable law, any failure by you to notify the Credit Union of any error, omission or other discrepancy in accordance with this Agreement and your Credit Union Account Agreement shall relieve the Credit Union of any liability for such error, omission or discrepancy.
